Des Moines, IA – February 23, 2015 – Hoyt Sherman Place Theater is proud to present the 2015 SmartTalk Connected Conversations series that will take place over the course of three dates, featuring three insightful speakers.

“SmartTalk series creates live, unforgettable connected conversations between you and the most extraordinary women in the world.” Karen Menke, Connector-In-Chief states in regards to the series’ mission towards all participants.

Lisa Myers, Tina Brown, Joy Behar form the lineup of this years 2015 SmartTalk series in downtown Des Moines, at Hoyt Sherman Place Theater, located on 1501 Woodland Avenue. Shows take place at 7 p.m. where participants then have the chance to provide any questions they may have during the 45 to 55 minute talk given by the speaker of the night.

Individuals are invited to engage in this personal and interactive experience in hopes of developing a new insight and perspective within these collective conversations.

By selling SmartTalk tickets as a series, it promotes the series as a whole and creates a steady and regular group of participants throughout the entire season. Ensuring tickets as a package allows for significant relationships with other SmartTalk supporters.

Tickets and more information on the SmartTalk Connected Conversations series, as well as VIP meet and greet sessions, is available at <http://smarstalkwomen.com>.
